

Tips to Lower Sewer Bill

The “Winter Months” method will not always yield the lowest bill; however, for many households, water usage tends to be higher from May to October when irrigation systems are operational and pools are being filled. With this in mind, here are some tips to reduce water usage and your sewer bill:

-